

Corporate Governance Statement

Our commitment to corporate governance

Investec Australia Property Fund (Fund) is a managed investment scheme currently listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and is proposed to also be listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX). As such, the Fund will be dual primary listed on the ASX and the JSE and will need to comply with the ASX Listing Rules, the listing requirements of the JSE (JSE Listings Requirements), the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition) published in July 2014 by the ASX Corporate Governance Council, (ASX Corporate Governance Principles) and the King IV Code principles (King IV) which outline the corporate governance guidelines that apply to all JSE listed entities.

The Responsible Entity is Investec Property Limited (IPL), a member of the Investec Group (Investec). IPL's role is defined by the Fund's constitution (Constitution), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cwth) (Corporations Act) and the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cwth) (Corporations Regulations) and the general law.

The board of directors of IPL (Board) recognises the importance of corporate governance in achieving the investment objectives of the Fund, and discharging its responsibilities to all stakeholders of the Fund. The governance framework, as summarised in this Corporate Governance Statement, has been designed to ensure that the Fund is effectively managed, the statutory obligations are met, and Investec's culture of corporate integrity is reinforced.

Due consideration has been given to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and any departure from these ASX Corporate Governance Principles is noted below. We note that the ASX Corporate Governance Principles have been modified by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (Council) when applied to externally manage listed trusts such as the Fund and the Council has stated a number of the recommendations do not apply to externally-managed listed trusts. Due consideration has also been given to King IV.

This Statement provides a summary of the key governance practices in place and (unless stated otherwise) for the Fund against both the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and King IV.

IPL's key corporate policies can be found on its website www.iapf.com.au.

PART A – ASX CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

Principle	Comments
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
ASX Corporate Governance Principle 1.1 – A listed entity should disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the arrangements between the responsible entity and the listed entity for managing the affairs of the listed entity; and (b) the role and responsibility of the board of the responsible entity for overseeing those arrangements. 	The Board of IPL is committed to effectively representing and promoting the Fund, and thereby adding long-term value to all Securityholders. The Board is accountable to Securityholders for the management of the Fund's business and affairs and as such is responsible for the overall strategy, governance and performance of the Fund. To clarify the roles and responsibilities of directors and management, and to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities, IPL has established a governance framework which sets out the functions reserved to the Board and provides for the delegation of functions to Board Committees and management through the adoption of a Board Charter. The Board Charter sets out the Board's responsibilities for monitoring operational performance and management of the Fund, and the determination of policy and processes to ensure the integrity of risk management and internal controls, communication policy and evaluation of personnel. Those functions and responsibilities reserved to the Board are set out in the Board Charter, which is available to view at www.iapf.com.au. In accordance with the Constitution and IPL's responsible entity duties as well as various policies applicable to IPL and the Fund, the Board has authority to make decisions in respect of investments and divestments, equity or debt funding, related party transactions, approval of financial accounts, auditor appointment, adopting property valuations, distributions,

	annual reports and any significant changes to policies or debt facilities of the Fund. Those IPL executives and senior managers that have responsibility for the business activities of the Fund have delegated authority to make decisions in respect of the day to day management of the Fund and its assets, including appointment of advisers, approvals of asset business plans, budgets, capital expenditure and hedging (within approved hedging policy).
ASX Corporate Governance Principle 1.2 – A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to securityholders a candidate for election as a director; and (b) provide securityholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed.
ASX Corporate Governance Principle 1.3 – A listed entity should have a written agreement with each non-executive director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. The Fund has no employees and any people providing services to the Fund are employees of another entity within Investec. However, there are written agreements in place with each non-executive director and senior executive and their employing entity (to the extent relevant).
ASX Recommendation 1.4 – The Company Secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. Notwithstanding this, Paul Lam-Po-Tang has been appointed as company secretary and is accountable to IPL as the responsible entity of the Fund.
ASX Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; (c) disclose at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (i) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes) or (ii) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "gender Equality Indicators" as defined in, and published under, that Act.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, IPL has a Board Diversity Policy which has been implemented to comply with the JSE Listings Requirements and King IV acknowledging the unique nature of the Fund in a South African context. Under the Board Diversity Policy the Board's composition will be reviewed annually to ensure alignment to the strategic needs of the business and the environment in which it operates, as well as all aspects of diversity, specifically its gender balance, without compromising the calibre of the directors. A copy of the Board Diversity Policy is available at www.iapf.com.au The Board maintains that appointments to the Board should be based on merit as well as complementing the skills, knowledge and experience of the board as a whole.
ASX Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should:	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, the Board and individual directors have their overall performance reviewed annually in order to identify

(a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that.	areas for improvement in the discharge of individual director's and the Board's functions on an annual basis. This review is undertaken by the chairman and, if so determined by the Board, an independent service provider. The performance review of the chairman is carried out by the lead independent director.
ASX Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed
Principle 2: Structure the Board to add value
ASX Recommendation 2.1 – The Board of a listed entity should: (a) Have a nomination committee which: (i) Has at least three members, a majority of which are independent directors and; (ii) Is chaired by an independent director, And disclose: (iii) The charter of the committee; (iv) The members of the committee; and (v) As at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) If it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed.
ASX Recommendation 2.2 – A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed.
ASX Recommendation 2.3 – A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered to be independent directors; and (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship that may cause doubt about the independence of a director, but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and	The Board considers that a director is independent if they are independent of management and free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or could reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgment to bear on issues to the Board and to act in the best interests of the Fund and its unitholders generally. The Board evaluates the materiality of any interests or relationships that could be perceived to compromise independence on a case by case basis, having regard to the circumstances of each director. The Board is comprised of one executive director and five non-executive directors. Three of the non- executive directors

(c) the length of service of each director.	are independent directors. Richard Longes is Chair of the Board and is an independent non- executive director. Directors are expected to be meticulous in their disclosure of any material personal or family contract or relationship. Directors must also strictly adhere to constraints on their participation and voting in relation to matters in which they may have an interest, in policies. The Board regularly assesses whether directors are independent, and each director is required to provide information relative to this assessment. Details of directors and their experience and qualifications can be found on section 5.1 of the PDS.
Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, in order to comply with the JSE Listings Requirements, the majority of the Board comprises non-executive directors and the majority of non-executive directors are independent.
ASX Recommendation 2.5 – The Chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, the chair of IPL is independent and is not the same person as the CEO.
ASX Recommendation 2.6 – A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, the Board has established an orientation programme to familiarise incoming directors with the Fund's operations, senior management and its business environment, and to inform them of their fiduciary duties and responsibilities.
Principle 3: Act ethically and responsibly
ASX recommendation 3.1 – A listed entity should: (a) Have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) Disclose that code or a summary of it.	IPL has established a Code of Conduct (Code) which applies to the Fund and is periodically reviewed and endorsed by the Board. The Code forms the basis for ethical behaviour by staff and is the framework that provides the foundation for maintaining and enhancing IPL's reputation for all its employees. The objective of the Code is to ensure that directors, other stakeholders and the broader community can be confident that IPL and the Fund conducts its affairs honestly and in accordance with ethical values and practices. The Code sets the standards for dealing ethically with employees, investors, customers, regulatory bodies and the financial and wider community. In addition to this, in order to deal specifically with responsibility and accountability of individuals for reporting and investigating reports of unethical behaviour, IPL has adopted a Gift, Entertainment and Anti-Bribery Policy. Employees are trained regularly on matters pertaining to ethical behavior in the workplace. Copies of the Code and the Gift, Entertainment and Anti-Bribery Policy are available to view at www.iapf.com.au
Principle 4: Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
Audit Committee	The Board has established an Audit and Risk Committee (ARC) to oversee the quality and integrity of accounting, audit, financial and risk management practices for the Fund.

ASX Recommendation 4.1 – The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (i) has at least three members, all of whom are non- executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, who is not chair of the board, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (v) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose the fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	The ARC is comprised of only independent non-executive directors, and is chaired by an independent director who is not the chairman of the Board. The Board has developed a charter which sets out the ARC's role, responsibilities, and composition, structure and membership requirements. An external auditor meets privately with the ARC as frequently as is necessary, is invited to attend ARC meetings, and have access to the chairperson of the ARC. The ARC members all have an appropriate level of financial and property industry expertise. Information on ARC members can be found on section 5.1 of the PDS. The Board regularly assesses and has determined that members of the ARC collectively have an appropriate level of financial and property industry expertise to discharge their responsibilities.
ASX Recommendation 4.2 – The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The chairperson of the ARC receives a management representation letter from the CEO and CFO for the Fund that the Fund's financial statements are founded on a sound system of risk management and internal control and that the system is operating in all material respects in relation to financial reporting risks. This declaration is supported by a review and sign-off process from senior managers working on the Fund on the key items that make up the risk management and control systems.
ASX Recommendation 4.3 – A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from Securityholders relevant to the audit.	Prior to the ASX Listing, the external auditor of the Fund is KPMG South Africa. On the ASX Listing occurring, the Board has appointed both KPMG Australia and KPMG South Africa (KPMG) as the external auditor of the Fund. KPMG is expected to carry out its responsibilities in accordance with Australian and South African law and audit firm policy in respect of partner rotation The external auditor attends the annual general meeting of the Fund (AGM) and is invited to all unitholder meetings. Each year's audit plan includes a statement of independence by the external auditors.
Principle 5: Make timely and balanced disclosure
ASX Recommendation 5.1 – A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	The Board strives to provide timely, open and accurate information to all stakeholders, including unitholders, regulators and the wider investment community. This includes presenting a balanced approach to disclosure. The Board has adopted a Disclosure Policy which summarises the internal processes to ensure compliance with ASX Listing Rules, the JSE Listings Requirements, South African law and Australian law in respect of continuous disclosure. A

	disclosure committee has also been established by management to review issues surrounding continuous disclosure and to determine whether disclosure is required, and make corresponding recommendations to the Board. The policy includes procedures for dealing with potentially price-sensitive information, including referral to the disclosure committee and the Board where necessary, for a determination as to the appropriate disclosure required. The Disclosure Policy is available to view at www.iapf.com.au.
Principle 6: Respect the rights of security holders
ASX Recommendation 6.1 – A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	IPL provides information to unitholders, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the right for unitholders to receive annual and half yearly reports and updates which keep them informed of the Fund's performance and operations; • posting any ASX and JSE announcements it makes on behalf of the Fund on the Fund's website at www.iapf.com.au as soon as they have been released on the ASX and on SENS; and • through the maintenance of a comprehensive investor relations component on the Fund's website, including a facility for unitholders to direct queries to IPL. Trusts such as the Fund are not required by law to hold an AGM, however, the Fund does hold an AGM.
ASX Recommendation 6.2 – A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	IPL will provide clear and effective communications with stakeholders on matters affecting the Fund, in accordance with the Disclosure Policy.
ASX Recommendation 6.3 – A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of securityholders.	The Fund will hold an AGM. Each AGM will cover formal business, but also provide unitholders with an opportunity to be updated on the activities of IPL and the Fund, and to ask questions of the Board and management of the Fund. The external auditor of the Fund will also attend each AGM to answer questions on the audited accounts of the Fund. Notices of meeting and explanatory memoranda for unitholder resolutions will be provided to unitholders in accordance with the Constitution and the Corporations Act, and will be accessible on the Fund's website, as well as being lodged with ASX. Unitholders who are not able to attend an AGM are able to vote by proxy.
ASX Recommendation 6.4 – A listed entity should give securityholders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	The Fund is committed to providing unitholders with timely communications regarding matters that impact or have the potential to influence the investment performance of the Fund. The Fund understands its regulatory requirements in respect to continuous disclosure and various other legal obligations as a consequence of its listing on the ASX. A website has been established at www.iapf.com.au to assist unitholders in obtaining current and historic information in respect to their investment, or prospective investment, in the Fund. All relevant ASX announcements, reports, results presentations and other media announcements are logged on this website for review by current and prospective unitholders.

	Unitholders are able to elect to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.
Principle 7: Recognise and Manage Risk
Risk Committee ASX Recommendation 7.1 – The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a risk committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee, disclose the fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity’s risk management framework. ASX Recommendation 7.2 – The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity’s risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	Management has implemented a risk management framework under the oversight of the ARC. The ARC is responsible for reviewing, and reporting to the Board on, the internal control and risk management systems of the Fund and assessing the information presented by management. In addition, the ARC regularly assesses whether the Fund’s compliance plan, internal financial control systems, risk management policies and risk management systems are adequate. Investec’s Compliance Manager is responsible for daily risk and compliance processes across the business and monitors the efficiency of the Fund’s risk management framework (including compliance systems) on an ongoing basis. The aim is to ensure that appropriate procedures, staff education and reporting arrangements are in place to support the risk management framework. Management conducts an annual Operational Risk Self-Assessment of the Board (ORSA) where key risks and controls are considered and their effectiveness assessed. The results of this assessment are reported to the ARC and the Board. Management reports to the ARC on the manner in which it manages its material risks, the effectiveness of the framework and the results of the annual ORSA. The Board places considerable importance on maintaining a strong control environment through an organisational structure with clearly drawn lines of accountability and authority. Managing conflicts The Fund is managed by Investec, and therefore also subscribes to the Investec governance framework to safeguard the interests of unitholders, which at times may conflict with those of Investec. As part of this framework, the Fund has adopted a Conflicts of Interest Policy for identifying and managing conflicts. The Conflicts of Interest Policy provides guidance on the management of conflicts of interest arising between the Fund and its related parties and requires that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • related party transactions be identified and conducted on arm’s length terms; • related party transactions be tested by reference to whether they meet market standards; and • decisions about transactions between the Fund and Investec or its affiliates be made by independent non-associated and non-executive members of the Board. The Fund has also established protocols for the Board in identifying and managing conflicts, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board members must declare their interests as required under the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules and other general law requirements; • Board members with a material personal interest in a matter are not to be present at a Board meeting during the consideration of the matter and

	subsequent vote unless the Board (excluding the relevant Board member) resolves otherwise; and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board members with a conflict not involving a material personal interest may be required to absent themselves from the relevant deliberations of the Board. The Conflicts of Interest Policy is available to view at www.iapf.com.au. Personal conflicts that might arise generally for directors and staff are covered by the Code of Conduct referred to earlier in this Corporate Governance Statement.
ASX Recommendation 7.3 – A listed entity should: (a) disclose that it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	The Board places considerable importance on maintaining a strong control environment through an organisation structure with clearly drawn lines of accountability and authority. Investec has implemented an internal audit function which is provided via Investec Plc who is engaged to perform the internal assurance function for the Fund, delivering regular reporting to the ARC and the Board as well as implementing action plans with management.
ASX Recommendation 7.4 – A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental, and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	IPL is committed to playing a leading role in achieving a sustainable future. The ARC oversees and reports on sustainability issues, relevant to the Fund although the Fund has no material exposure to economic, environmental, and social sustainability risks.
Principle 8: Remunerate fairly and responsibly
ASX Recommendation 8.1 – The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose the fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed.
ASX Recommendation 8.2 – A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Whilst the ASX Corporate Governance Principles recommend the establishment of a remuneration committee, the Board does not consider it necessary or appropriate to constitute a remuneration committee as the Fund does not employ staff directly, and the ASX has granted a waiver of the requirement as long as the Fund is to be included in the S&P/ASX 300 Index on admission. Investec is responsible for setting and overseeing the remuneration policies and equity based plans for Investec

	executives and senior managers, including those that have responsibility for the business activities of the Fund. The non-independent directors of IPL, the executive directors of IPL, and senior managers of Investec that have responsibility for the business activities of the Fund, are not paid by IPL or the Fund. They are remunerated by Investec. The Fund pays fees to IPL for carrying out its responsible entity duties for the Fund (which includes 'Manager' fees as defined under the Constitution). These fees are described further below under the section 'Fund's Management Arrangements'. The remuneration of any independent, non-associated and non-executive director appointed to the Board is limited to the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by such person for purposes of attending Board meetings and the appropriate director's fees, unless IPL determines otherwise. In respect of the independent, non-associated and non-executive directors, fees and expenses are reimbursed out of the Fund. Non-executive directors of IPL are not entitled to Investec options or securities or to retirement benefits as part of their appointment.
ASX Recommendation 8.3 – A listed entity which has an equity based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Not applicable, as the Fund is externally managed. However, the Board has adopted a Personal Account Dealing and Trading Policy which regulates the manner in which directors, senior executives, staff involved in the management of the Fund and other nominated persons can deal in Fund securities. The Personal Account Dealing and Trading Policy specifies the periods in which personal trading is permitted, the restrictions that apply to directors and senior executives, and the procedures for obtaining prior clearance for trading during a trading window. The Personal Account Dealing and Trading Policy is subject to annual review by the Board, and has been lodged with the ASX. The Personal Account Dealing and Trading Policy is available to view at www.iapf.com.au.

Part B - King IV Code principles

King IV must be applied by all JSE listed entities in respect of financial years commencing on or after 1 April 2017.

King IV reflects the significant regulatory and corporate governance changes that have been seen locally in the South African market and internationally.

The Board is committed to the continued application and monitoring of the principles prescribed by King IV and recognises it sets the tone for the management of the Fund through transparent and ethical leadership. King IV is applied to the extent applicable, whilst acknowledging the unique nature of the Fund in a South African context. The Board will continue to analyse the Fund's practices to further support and apply the various principles and outcomes in terms of King IV.

The below table sets out the 16 applicable principles of King IV and explains the application of these principles to the Fund.

Leadership, Ethics and Corporate Citizenship
PRINCIPLE 1: The governing body should lead ethically and effectively. PRINCIPLE 2: The governing body should govern the ethics of the organisation in a way that supports the establishment of an ethical culture.	The Board is committed to cultivating a strong ethical culture. This is applied through the Fund and the wider Investec codes of ethics and conduct, which guide and hold management and the directors responsible for their conduct.

PRINCIPLE 3: The governing body should ensure that the organisation is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen.	The Board Charter also sets the tone for the Board in terms of ethical leadership with the following key objectives noted: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • approve the strategy of IPL and the Fund; • act as a focal point for, and custodian of, corporate governance; • provide effective and ethical leadership; • ensure IPL and the Fund are responsible corporate citizens; • be responsible for the high-level review of risk, including that of information and technology; and • ensure that IPL and the Fund comply with all the applicable laws and adhere to non-binding rules and standards. The Board has a standing agenda item at board meetings at least bi-annually to address ethics, social impact and good corporate citizenship in the conduct of its business. These matters are also part of the Charter of the ARC.
Strategy, Performance and Reporting
PRINCIPAL 4: The governing body should appreciate that the organisation's core purpose, its risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are all inseparable elements of the value creation process. PRINCIPLE 5: The governing body should ensure that reports issued by the organisation enable stakeholders to make informed assessments of the organisation's performance, and its short, medium and long term prospects.	The Board and management set the strategy of the Fund through a focused annual strategy session and continued dialogue and review of success throughout the year. The Board ensures that there are robust processes in place to make sure that meaningful and timely reporting is provided to investors, enabling informed assessment and investment decisions based on accurate and transparent information provided. The Fund's annual report goes through a thorough review process by the Board and its ARC before being published.
Governing Structures and Delegation
PRINCIPLE 6: The governing body should serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation. PRINCIPLE 7: The governing body should comprise the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively. PRINCIPLE 8: The governing body should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgement, and assist with balance of power and the effective discharge of its duties. PRINCIPLE 9: The governing body should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair	The Board's commitment to good corporate governance is applied through its Board Charter which adheres to the principles set out in King IV, the JSE Listings Requirements, the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act. The Board Charter does this by setting the tone for conduct, details the Board's role and objectives along with clear description of the delegation framework. The composition of the Board and the ARC reflects a wide range of expertise and knowledge, the composition of both is contemplated in more detail in Part A. Both the Board and the ARC are committed to adherence of their responsibilities as set out in their respective charters. The performance of the Board, its ARC and that of the company secretary are reviewed annually to ensure continued effectiveness and in the case of the company secretary that they continue to have an at arm's length relationship with the Board.

The Fund's management arrangements

The following is a high level summary of the Fund's current management arrangements addressing the disclosure recommended in ASX Guidance Note 26. We recommend that you read the Constitution available at www.iapf.com.au.

Investment Mandate

The principal investment policy of the Fund is investment in high quality Australian and New Zealand office, industrial and retail properties. This policy may be varied from time to time upon giving reasonable notice to unitholders.

Term

IPL has no fixed term of appointment and therefore the appointment continues until it is:

- removed; or
- retires; or
- Unitholders vote to wind up the Fund as provided for in the Constitution or by law.

Extension or renewal

Not applicable.

Termination

The Fund may terminate the appointment of the IPL without cause, by unitholder vote.

The resolution must be passed by at least 50% of votes cast at a meeting by unitholders entitled to vote. IPL and associates may vote their securities on the resolution.

ASIC or a court may replace IPL as the responsible entity where there are solvency issues or members are likely to suffer a loss because IPL has breached the Corporations Act.

Pursuant to the Corporations Act, IPL can retire if it first convenes a unitholders meeting to explain its reason for retirement and to enable unitholders to vote on a resolution to choose a new responsible entity.

The Manager may also terminate the Management Agreement at any time by providing IPL with 3 months' notice at any time, or, in the event that substantially all of the Fund's assets are sold, by providing it with 10 days' notice.

The Manager may also terminate the Management Agreement on the occurrence of a default or insolvency event of IPL with immediate effect.

IPL may immediately terminate the Management Agreement on the occurrence of a default or insolvency event of the Manager.

No fees are payable to the Manager on termination or expiry of the Management Agreement.

Fees

Base fee

The base fee is currently calculated as 0.025% per annum of the value of the Fund's enterprise value.

The base fee is to be reimbursed from the assets of the Fund as IPL incurs operating expenses but is currently waived.

Expenses

IPL is entitled to be reimbursed for expenses incurred in relation to the proper performance of its responsible entity duties. These operating expenses exclude the base management, property management and leasing fees payable to the Manager under the Management Agreement, and are reimbursed to IPL from the assets of the Fund.

Related party protocols

The Fund has adopted a Conflicts of Interest Policy and a Related Party Policy which cover transactions with and services provided by Investec companies and managed vehicles.

Examples of areas in which Investec may provide resources or services are: property due diligence, property management, property agency services including facilities management, leasing, property sales and acquisitions, project management, debt arrangement, accounting and corporate and development management and property compliance.

All related party transactions or services must be on arm's length terms and are approved by the independent, non-associated and non-executive directors of IPL only. The fees for related party services are disclosed in the financial statements for the Fund.

Mandates for the provision of related party services to the Fund require approval by the independent, non-associated and non-executive directors of IPL based on appropriate market information or practice and when considered appropriate are subject to third party independent review.

In the case of the provision of services, the reviewers have regard to market evidence gathered from their own enquiries, including information requested from Investec.

For further information on related party fees please refer to the financial statements.

Director Appointment Rights

In accordance with the Corporations Act and the Constitution, Investec currently appoints all of the directors of IPL, given that it is an Investec subsidiary.

As the Fund is an externally managed trust, unitholders are not legally able to vote for directors of IPL.
